

Enology and Wine Business Certificate Program

The Enology and Wine Business Certificate Program offered jointly by EVN Wine Academy in Armenia and the Geisenheim University in Germany, provides a professional specialization based through on-the-job training in winemaking and wine business.

Program Description

The EVN Wine Academy started in 2014 as a response to the positive developments in the Armenian wine sector. Through education, research, and consultancy the EVN Wine Academy is sustaining Armenian winemakers in many respects, having started with the initiation of an international certificate program in winemaking and wine business.

This international double-certificate is based on up-to-date academic content offered by the renowned Geisenheim University and the EVN Wine Academy. Special focus is given to on-the-job learning directly in wineries with our international instructors.

This 18-month curriculum in winemaking and wine business, which includes preparatory courses, is strongly practice-oriented. It is taught in English with special focus on interactivity between students, lecturers, wineries and other actors in the wine industry. The classes are conducted four times a week in the evenings to provide the students flexibility to work or to study elsewhere.

National and international internships at wineries, study trips and workshops are crucial parts of this program.
